Section 2: At the meeting of the Legislative District Committee for the purpose of recommending to the Governor three (3) nominees to fill a vacancy in the Legislature, only Precinct Committeemen from within the Legislative District shall be entitled to nominate candidates and vote. In the event of a tie vote, the Legislative District Chairman may cast the tiebreaker vote unless the Legislative District Chairman is also a Precinct Committeeman. In such an event then the Legislative District Vice Chairman may cast the tiebreaker vote unless the Legislative District Vice Chairman is also a Precinct Committeeman. If such a situation should occur, then the Committee may proceed with whatever means of breaking the tie that is agreed upon to be acceptable by a majority of the Committee. All nominees must reside within the Legislative District. All Precinct Committeemen may vote for three (3) candidates in preferential order.

Section 3: The Legislative District Chairman shall submit the names of the three (3) nominees to the Governor within two (2) days of their selection. Said nominees shall be listed in order of preference.

Or,

(2) “I have read the Idaho Republican Party Platform. Section 4: The candidate disclosure statements and any exceptions noted therein shall be posted on the Idaho Republican Party internet site at least 30 days prior to the state primary election and shall be made available to anyone making a request. Should any candidate fail to submit the Disclosure Statement, the Party Chairman will announce this failure no later than 40 days prior to the primary election. In this case the following actions will be taken:

(a) The State Chairman will prepare a press release stating that the candidate has refused to submit the Disclosure Statement and that the Idaho Republican Party cannot endorse said candidacy.

(b) This press release will be provided to the District Chairman for publication in all newspapers within that district. This must be sent out for publication in all area newspapers within 10 days of receipt by District Chairman.

Section 5: We ask that all candidates certify they are not a candidate, officer, delegate or position holder in any party other than the Republican Party.
ARTICLE XI: JUDICIAL COMMITTEE

Section 1: The State Republican Party shall exercise supervisory and judicial oversight of all county central committees, legislative district central committees, and any other affiliated clubs or groups denominated in the rules.

NATIONAL CONVENTION AND THE REPUBLICAN STATE

Section 1: Thirty (30) days prior to the Presidential Primary Election in each Presidential election year, and prior to May 1, in each non-presidential election year, the Republican Legislative District Chairman in each Legislative District shall prepare and forward to the Republican State Chairman, in care of the GOP State Headquarters, a notice stating the date, time, and place of meeting to be held within eleven (11) days after the primary election, for the purpose of selecting Delegates to the GOP State Convention, who will select Delegates to the Republican National Convention.

Section 2: In cases of vacancy in the office of Legislative District Chairman or the nonperformance of duty, where it is impractical to follow Article VII, Section Seven (7) of the rules of the Idaho Republican Party in filling the office, the Republican State Chairman is empowered to appoint a Precinct Committeeman/woman in the District as acting Chairman for the purpose of calling and conducting the meeting. In the case that no such Precinct Committeeman/Woman exists in the District, the Republican State Chairman is empowered to fill a vacant Precinct Committeeman/Woman position in the District for the purpose of calling and conducting the meeting.
Section 3: After notification, the State Chairman shall dispatch press releases to each daily and weekly newspaper in the state, specifying date, time, and place of the Legislative District meetings to be held in the circulation area of the papers. In addition, the Legislative District Chairman shall issue press releases to each paper in his area containing the same information.

Section 4: At the appointment time, an open Legislative District meeting shall be held with the Legislative Chairman conducting the meeting. Those people with votes at the meeting shall be those lawfully elected or appointed under Idaho Code as "Delegates to the County Convention" in that particular precinct within that Legislative District.

Section 5: Each Legislative District shall select three (3) Delegates and three (3) Alternates for each Senate seat in that Legislative District to the Republican State Convention. Each meeting shall establish the precedence of the Alternate selected. Each Legislative District Delegation to the State Convention shall elect one (1) Delegate as Chairman of the Delegation.

Section 6: An individual otherwise qualified by these rules may be selected to be an alternate delegate for both a county and legislative district, but is restricted from voting in both jurisdictions on any given issue.
ARTICLE II: COUNTY DELEGATE SELECTION MEETING

Section 1: Thirty (30) days prior to the Presidential Primary Election in each Presidential election year, and prior to May 1, in each non-Presidential election year, each Republican County Chairman shall prepare and forward to the Republican State Chairman, in care of the GOP State Headquarters, a notice stating the date, time, and place of meeting to be held within ten (10) days after the primary election, for the purpose of selecting Delegates to the GOP State Convention, who will select Delegates to the Republican National Convention.

Section 2: Each County shall follow the same procedures as a legislative district in holding an open meeting for the selection of Delegates to the Republican State Convention.

Section 3: Each County shall select three (3) Delegates and three (3) Alternates to the Republican State Convention. In addition, each County shall select one (1) Delegate and one (1) Alternate for each one thousand (1,000) votes cast for the Republican Congressional Candidate in the previous general election, or major fraction thereof, in that county. Republican State Headquarters will advise each County Chairman of the number of Delegates his county is entitled to elect. Each meeting shall establish the precedence of the Alternates selected. Any person qualified to vote in the county may be elected a Delegate or Alternate to the GOP State Convention. Each County Delegation to the State Convention shall select one Delegate as Chairman of the Delegation.

Section 4: An individual otherwise qualified by these rules may be selected to be an alternate delegate for both a county and legislative district, but is restricted from voting in both jurisdictions on any given issue.
ARTICLE III: PREPARATIONS FOR STATE CONVENTION

Section 1: Within two (2) days of the adjournment of the Legislative District and County Central Committee meetings, the respective Chairmen shall send a statement giving the names and addresses of each Delegate and Alternate elected at the meeting to the State Chairman in care of the Republican State Headquarters.

Section 2: The State Chairman shall be charged with issuing the roll of the State Convention, based upon the Legislative District and County elections, preferably three days but no later than one day prior to the Convention and having certified its accuracy, according to the Statement of the respective Chairmen.

Section 3: Any person aggrieved by the manner of conduct in the proceedings in any Legislative District or County meeting, or of any Legislative District Chairman or County Chairman, or of the State Chairman prior to the convening of the State Convention shall specify the reasons therefore in writing. Appeals may only be undertaken for alleged failures to observe the provisions of these rules, and Notice of Appeal must be in writing over the names of the persons aggrieved, and must specify the particulars alleged violate. The State Chairman shall refer such cases to the Credentials Committee of the Convention who shall make a recommendation to the Convention as a whole. Delegates involved in the case shall not be allowed to vote on the question.
ARTICLE IV: STATE CONVENTION

Section 1: Delegates to the State Convention elected at the Legislative District and County meetings shall have the right of full participation in all Convention matters. All Republican State Conventions shall be open, and attendance shall be invited from all members of the Party, but only Duly Certified Delegates or Alternates serving in their stead shall be entitled to vote on matters before the Convention or before committees of the Convention.

Section 2: The Rules of the Convention shall be the rules adopted by the previous Republican State Convention until such time as the State Convention adopts new rules, which shall become effective immediately. Such rules, however, shall not be inconsistent with the rules for Delegate selection as adopted by the State Central Committee.

ARTICLE V: IDAHO REPUBLICAN PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION CAUCUS

Section 1: At the January SCC meeting one year prior to a Presidential Election year (January 2015 for example), the Idaho GOP Chairman shall appoint an Idaho Republican Presidential Caucus Committee (IRPCC) consisting of a chairman and one SCC member from each of the seven regions. The IRPCC shall be responsible for assisting the counties setting up and conducting their Presidential Caucuses, and to assist in educating Idaho voters on how the Idaho Republican Presidential Caucus works. The IRPCC will work closely with the Idaho GOP Chairman in the preparations and in complying with the rules of the Caucus. The IRPCC will maintain communication with the Idaho GOP as to preparations and/or concerns leading up to the Presidential Caucus. The IRPCC will facilitate communications with the media concerning caucus rules and news about the Idaho Republican Presidential Caucus.
Section 2: The Idaho Nomination Caucus shall be held on the first Tuesday allowed by the Republican National Committee (RNC), without incurring a penalty. The Idaho Republican Presidential Nomination Caucus is not winner-take-all; accordingly the RNC allows Idaho an early caucus opportunity (typically in February or March).

(a) For a candidate to be placed on the official ballot for the Idaho Republican Presidential Nomination Caucus, he or she shall submit a non-refundable $10,000 filing fee to the Idaho Republican Party no later than 30 days prior to the caucus date. The fees will be distributed evenly among the 44 county central committees to offset counties’ costs of conducting their caucuses.

Section 3: The Idaho GOP Chairman shall send official notice of the Idaho Republican Presidential Nomination Caucus to counties no later than 45 days prior to the caucus. Idaho GOP Headquarters shall provide County Chairmen with the recommended form for providing notice to caucus voters. No later than 20 days prior to the caucus, the Idaho GOP Chairman will notify all county central committee chairs of the candidates to be included in the official caucus voting.

Section 4: Each County Chairman shall notify the voters as soon as possible, but no later than ten (10) days prior to the Caucus. Notification should be printed in the local paper or provided by another recognized means of announcing the caucus time and location(s). Phone calls or emails to caucus voters are strongly encouraged. The County Chairman shall notify the Idaho GOP Headquarters of the meeting location(s) ten (10) days prior to the caucus.
Section 5: Any individual desiring to have his/her name voted on at the Idaho Republican Presidential Caucus shall submit a declaration of candidacy along with a non-refundable $10,000.00 filing fee, at least 30 days from the date of the caucus. The campaign of each qualifying candidate is entitled to space on the caucus floor. If a candidate drops out of the race for nomination prior to the Idaho Republican Presidential Caucus, then the candidate’s name will be removed from consideration on all ballots in the Idaho Republican Presidential Caucus.

Section 6: Idaho GOP Headquarters shall provide each County Chairman with the recommended form for a ballot to be used in caucus voting. Each county shall provide enough ballots and/or tokens to conduct the caucus. The State Chairman may grant any county’s request to use a method of voting that does not consist of paper ballots. The State Executive Committee may appoint representatives to oversee any aspect of any county’s caucus process.

Section 7: All registered Republicans of the county, including same-day registrants, as well as 17-year-olds who will turn 18 by the date of the General Election who have completed a registration card or, if 17, have signed an affidavit indicating their age and eligibility, are entitled to participate in their county’s caucus. All caucus voters must sign a register next to their name or verify their name on a spreadsheet to affirm that they are entitled to vote and are present and participating in the caucus. The County Chair or a designate will call the meeting to order. Prior to voting, the County Chair or a designate will instruct the participants of the voting procedures and how the ballots will be counted. The Chair or designate shall also allow for each candidate on the ballot, or a representative of their campaign, to offer some brief remarks to the assembly, and at the start of each successive round, should such rounds be provided for.

Section 8: Voting takes place in successive rounds. After each round, the candidate receiving the fewest votes and any candidate(s) receiving fewer than 15% of the Caucus vote are removed from the ballot. Voting continues until a single candidate receives greater than 50% of the vote, or until a final vote is taken for the final two candidates.

a) Counties may choose to use an “instant run-off” ballot to facilitate the voting and counting of votes for the caucus. An instant run-off ballot requires voters to rank the candidates. There is only one round of voting, but the counting of the votes is done in rounds, based on the highest-ranked candidate indicated on each ballot. After each round, the candidate receiving the fewest votes and any candidate(s) receiving fewer than 15% of the Caucus vote are removed from consideration on each ballot.
Counting continues by looking at the highest-ranked remaining candidate on each ballot. The counting rounds continue until a single candidate receives greater than 50% of the vote, or until a final count is made for the final two candidates.

Section 9: Ballots or tokens shall be distributed at the time specified in the Idaho GOP Chairman’s Caucus Call. Ballots or tokens shall only be distributed to those registered caucus voters who have signed in. Ballots or tokens must be collected from caucus voters as they are voted and returned. This is a secret vote, and County Central Committee members must do everything within their power to ensure that the ballot remains secret.
Section 10: Ballots and/or tokens shall be counted at the caucus site, supervised by a three-person committee. The committee is appointed by the County Chairman and approved by a majority voice vote of caucus participants. For counties with multiple venues, the Chair will similarly appoint three-person subcommittees to supervise the counting at the extra venues. The County Chairman and the three-person committee will certify the count as correct.

Section 11: At the end of each round of voting, the County Chairman shall announce the results. Voting continues until a single candidate receives greater than 50% of the vote or until a final vote is taken for two remaining candidates. After the final round of voting, the County Chairman shall phone the final results to the Idaho Republican Party Chairman.

Section 12: Once all county results have been phoned in, the Idaho GOP Chairman will declare a preliminary winner of the Idaho Republican Presidential Nomination Caucus. After voting totals have been counted and called in, the committee-certified report of the final-round voting totals must be placed in a sealed envelope and sent via certified mail or private overnight service to Idaho GOP Headquarters. The Idaho GOP Chairman will appoint a committee to verify the total of all votes cast for each candidate match the reported county totals. After the verification of all voting totals, the Idaho GOP Chairman will formally declare the official Caucus winner.

ARTICLE VI: APPORTIONMENT AND SELECTION OF DELEGATES TO THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

Section 1: The State Chairman shall appoint a committee to calculate the Delegate apportionment. After all Caucus votes are counted, the proper apportionment is calculated as follows:

Section 2: Each county receives a “weight” equal to its proportion of County Delegates allotted for the State Convention. For example, if there are 420 total County Delegates allotted for the State Convention and County A has 16 of them, then County A’s weight will be 16/420, or 3.81%. The County weights will be used to calculate the apportionment of Delegates and Alternates to the Republican National Convention.

Section 3: Each county’s share of National Delegates is calculated by multiplying the State’s allotment of National Convention Delegates by the county’s weight. Continuing the example, if the State is allotted 32 National Delegates, then County A would have a share of 3.81% of them, or 1.2192 of the 32 total National Delegates.

(a) Any county that does not hold a caucus on the date specified in Article V, Section 1, shall have its share of National Delegates apportioned to all participating counties and in the same proportions as detailed in sections 2 and 3 above.

Section 4: Any candidate winning greater than 50% of a county’s vote will be awarded that entire county’s share of National Delegates. When neither candidate wins greater than 50%, the candidates will split the county’s share of National Delegates, in proportion to the candidates’ county vote totals.
Section 5: The sum of all the Counties’ shares for each candidate, rounding the sum to the nearest whole delegate, will be that candidate’s share of the Delegates and Alternates to the National Convention with the proviso that, if one candidate wins more than 50% of the Idaho allotment of delegates, that candidate shall receive the entire 100% of the allotment of Delegates and Alternates to the National Convention. If the computation results in an unallocated Delegate, the Delegate shall be assigned to the candidate receiving the highest number of votes in the Idaho Caucus. If the computation results in the allocation of more Delegates than are available for allocation, the Delegate assignment to the candidate receiving the least number of Caucus votes shall be reduced accordingly.

Section 6: The State Chairman, in accordance with the agenda of the Idaho Republican State Convention, shall devote one (1) portion of the State Convention meeting to the selection of Delegates to the Republican National Convention in Presidential election years.

Section 7: Each Republican candidate for President of the United States shall prepare a list of its proposed Republican National Convention delegates for Idaho. The list must be filed with the Idaho Republican Party no later than 30 days prior to the State Convention. Eighty percent (80%) of the Idaho Delegates / Alternates to the Republican National Convention shall be selected from the lists of proposed delegates in proportion to the Delegates won in the Idaho Republican Presidential Nomination Caucus as calculated in Section 5 above. The remaining twenty percent shall be selected as pledged delegates to the Republican National Convention and in the same proportion as the Idaho Caucus apportionment. These delegates will be selected by the Nominations Committee of the Idaho State Republican Convention.
Section 8: The Delegates and Alternates elected shall be obliged on the first ballot taken at the Republican National Convention to vote for the candidate who nominated them, provided any Delegates selected as representing the "uncommitted" choice shall be free to cast their vote for any candidate whose name has been placed in nomination before the Republican National Convention.

Section 9: In the event of death or withdrawal of a candidate or release of Delegates by a candidate prior to the first ballot at the National Convention, Delegates committed to such a candidate shall, thereupon, become uncommitted delegates.

Section 10: In the event of the failure of a candidate to file a list of proposed Delegates/Alternates with the Idaho Republican Party, the State Convention may select and specify any persons preferring or identified with said candidate to serve as Delegates/Alternates to the National Convention in such numbers as the candidate is entitled. If a candidate who fails to file the required list also dies, withdraws, or releases Delegates prior to the official commencement of the State Convention, then the State Convention may select uncommitted Delegates/Alternates in such numbers as the candidates would have been entitled.

Section 11: In the event that any candidate is entitled to the selection of a number of Delegates/Alternates greater than the number of those persons whose names were filed with the Idaho Republican Party by the candidate, or in the event a person on the list indicates an inability to serve as a Delegate/Alternate, the State Convention shall select and specify persons to fill those Delegates/Alternates vacancies from a supplemental list filed by the candidate's designated representative with the Idaho Republican Party.

Section 12: Any individual or official who willfully violates Republican Party rules while conducting any stage of a caucus - to the extent that the results of the caucus can be called into question - shall be penalized by being stripped of their county’s delegates, unless it appears that the rules were intentionally broken for the purpose of stripping such delegates. Any aggrieved party may appeal a violation of the caucus rules through the judicial process of the Idaho Republican Party. The judicial branch of the party may order that a caucus be re-held, under the supervision of the State Party, if such can be done in a timely fashion, considering the time requirements specified herein. Any party official engaged in a substantive violation of the rules shall forfeit their office as penalty.

Section 13: Declaring an emergency. Any proposed rule related specifically to the Presidential Caucus shall be in effect upon its passage by the Rules Committee of the State Central Committee, subject to later modification or reversal at the next regular meeting of the State Central Committee. The Rules Committee may meet by conference call and may vote by phone or email on any matter specifically related to the Presidential Caucus. This section shall expire after the 2012 Idaho Republican Caucus is completed.

ARTICLE VII: FREEDOM OF OPPORTUNITY

Section 1: At all stages of the Delegate selection process, the party shall insure that there is no discrimination on the grounds of race, color, creed, national origin, religion, sex, or age. The unit rule shall not be used in any stage of the Delegate selection process.
Section 2: In the conduct of all proceedings, which are not specified for the existing Rules of the Idaho Republican Party, the National Party, or the Laws of Idaho, Robert's Rules of Order shall be followed.
