

IDAHO FEDERATION OF REPUBLICAN WOMEN HOSTED THEIR ANNUAL RED JACKET DAY ON THE HILL

~ Idaho Republican Women Met with Idaho Elected Officials ~

(BOISE, IDAHO) – The Idaho Capitol was invaded by red-jacketed women as The Idaho Federation of Republican Women (IFRW) hosted its Annual Spring Meeting March 17-18, 2015.

During the two-day event, there was representation from clubs all over the state. They attended training meetings, observed the Idaho House and Senate in action, had lunch with Legislators, toured the Capitol and networked with Republican women around the state.

Federation members met with Governor C.L. “Butch” Otter, Lt. Governor Brad Little, Secretary of State Lawrence Denney, Senators Patti Anne Lodge and Abby Lee, Representatives Wendy Horman, Kelley Packer and Julie VanOrden.

IFRW President Kitty Kunz remarked, “Idaho Republican Women are great examples of republican values, leadership, and energy. As we work together we will help lead our great state”.

The Idaho Federation of Republican Women promotes Republican principles and educates Republican women in the governmental process. The Federation provides assistance to local Republican Women’s Clubs.

###